

Kent State University Tuscarawas

New Philadelphia, Ohio

Located near historic Schoenbrunn Village in New Philadelphia, Kent State University Tuscarawas offers opportunities for businesses and manufactures alike to achieve their education and training goals. As part of Kent State University's eight campus network, the Tuscarawas Campus offers unique conference and training venues.

Opened to the public in the fall of 2003, the Advanced Technology Center (ATC) offers manufacturers an expansive area equipped with the latest technology and a secure location for prototype development, testing, and product demonstrations.

Through the campus' Reeves Foundation Center for Advanced Technology and Workforce Development meetings can now extend beyond the traditional meeting room. Poly-com View Station FX units allow three sites to be linked simultaneously via phone lines or Ethernet networks.

For seminar training, classrooms or the campus' state-of-the-art lecture hall can be rented providing your attendees a comfortable learning atmosphere.

Kent State University Tuscarawas is easily accessible via Interstate 77 Exit 81 or US Route 250. Several hotels are available within a five-mile radius for attendees in need of lodging.
